At 2 p.m. on 30 March 1954, [redacted] six Soviet war vessels off Stubbenkammer on Ruegen Island. [redacted] were observed. The vessels arrived from the direction of Sassnitz. [redacted]
The six Soviet vessels were followed at a distance of two sea miles by tug [redacted] which towed a target. After the tug had disappeared beyond the horizon, the six Soviet vessels started their firing practice which extended over two hours. Then the [redacted] headed toward Sassnitz. Later [redacted] tug [redacted] headed toward Sassnitz. It app[redacted] red that the target had only few hits.

Comment. The vessels were of the T-301 type; they are stationed in Warnemuende.
